

I enjoy klove so much. I think it has a big effect on the community. People like listening to klove because they play good christian music and they don't have commercials. It would have a big effect on the community. We would not have a good christian radio station to listen to. Klove is in the interest of the public because they send out a good message to people. Telling them about Jesus!!!!